

HUNTING SEASON ON IN NEARBY STATES

Any Game in Virginia; Ducks and Geese in Maryland.

Nimrods Hear of Rabbits, Mallards and Canvasbacks in Numbers Waiting to Be Shot.

The gunning season in Maryland and Virginia opens November 1. In Maryland the season for ducks and geese begins at sunrise; in Virginia the shooting of practically every species of game will be permitted.

Trains and steamboats that left here yesterday and last night carried sportsmen with supplies of ammunition and traps. Many went in automobiles. Others proceeded to lower river places in launches. Late trains today or early tomorrow morning will carry hunters anxious to reach the points throughout Virginia for river and upland shooting, and waters in Maryland for duck and geese shooting.

Game Reported Plentiful.

Reports from all sections of Maryland and Virginia indicate that birds are much more numerous this season than for years. Rabbits also are plentiful. Anglers on trips to the Potomac and Patuxent rivers have seen many rabbits and birds along the roads. On a trip to Rock Point, more than a month ago, fishermen, making the trip at night, saw seventeen rabbits on the road, while another party, going to Benedict saw thirteen. Those contemplating gunning trips to Virginia might save themselves considerable trouble by consulting the state laws relating to non-resident gunners. It is suggested. County officers and game wardens are under strict instructions to enforce provisions of the law affecting such hunters and carrying game out of the state.

Embargo on Removing Game.

Another important provision of the law deals with the question of bringing game from the state. It reads: "Any person authorized to hunt under the laws of this state may during the open season, take with him out of the state, either in his personal possession or as his baggage, on the same conveyance with him, not in a closed package, but exposed to view, not exceeding thirty wild water fowl, fifty quail or partridges, ten pheasants or grouse, three wild turkeys, one deer, or plovers, snipe, sand-piper, willets, tatters or curlews, not exceeding twenty-five each, or not exceeding 100 in the aggregate, when killed or captured by himself; provided, the same shall be plainly labeled or tagged with the name and address of the donor, and not for market or sale, so stating on the shipping tag, one deer, during the season, and not exceeding three wild turkeys, six pheasants, twelve wild water fowl, eighteen partridges or quail; provided, that such game shall be shipped exposed to public view and unenclosed, and each parcel or package shall be plainly labeled or tagged with the name and address of the donor and of the donee, and the number of each of such game so shipped. This section shall not apply to snipe or rabbits or hares."

Delivering game to a common carrier for transportation out of the state is made an offense. It is permissible to ship game through the state from another jurisdiction in unbroken packages. A fine of $50 is provided for infractions of the law. The law provides a penalty of from $5 to $50 for trespassing upon water or land of other persons. In cases where the offense is committed after warning the penalty is a fine of not more than $50, or sixty days imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the justice or jury trying the case.

The season for shooting snipe and plover in Virginia opened September 1, and will close December 16. The woodcock season closes January 1.

In Maryland the general season for upland game does not open until November 1. Then it will be lawful to kill quail, rabbits, grouse, wild turkeys and woodcock. Plover and snipe shooting is permitted between September 1 and December 16.

Reports from the several Maryland rivers where Washingtonians are in the habit of going duck shooting, indicate that ducks probably will be plentiful. Ducks have been seen in fairly large numbers along the Potomac and Patuxent rivers. Mallards and canvasbacks have been on the river within a few miles of the city lately.

FURNISHINGS RULED OUT.

Decision as to Equipment of Baltimore Immigrant Station.

In view of the fact that the exclusion of furniture and furnishings from the provision of law making appropriation for the construction of an immigration station at Baltimore, must be construed as though a separate appropriation had been made for such purpose—although there is no such appropriation—the controller of the Treasury, W. W. Warwick, puts his embargo on the purchase of a large number of kitchen, laundry and other furnishings.

But lighting fixtures can be purchased and installed as part of the construction of the station. Some of the items may be regarded as mechanical equipment, but as the question is not raised it is not passed upon.

AGREE TO ARBITRATE ALL MATTERS AT ISSUE

Amicable Adjustment Between Plymouth Church Pastor, Brooklyn, and a Former Trustee.

NEW YORK, October 30.—The Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, the pulpit which once was occupied by Henry Ward Beecher, and Frank L. Ferguson, former president of the board of trustees of the church, met today at the home of a mutual friend and signed a binding agreement to submit to arbitration all matters at issue between them.

Cause of Differences.

Chief of these matters was a demand by Dr. Hillis for an accounting of his business adventures for several years, the books and papers relating to which it was charged had been retained by Mr. Ferguson. Dr. Hillis' business manager for several years. Discussion over this has resulted in the filing of a libel suit for $50,000 damages against Dr. Hillis by his nephew, Percy D. Hillis, and legal action to have Mr. Ferguson examined prior to the contemplated filing of an action of some sort against him by Dr. Hillis.

Yield to Persuasion.

Dr. Hillis and Mr. Ferguson were persuaded to adjust their differences by amicable methods by two clergymen who have long been close friends of the Plymouth Church pastor, the Rev. Dr. Macy McGee Waters, pastor of the Tompkins Avenue Congregational Church, and the Rev. S. Parkes Cadman of the Central Congregational Church, both of Brooklyn. These clergymen represented to both Dr. Hillis and Mr. Ferguson that church unity and peace were threatened by the quarrel, and it was primarily on this representation, it was said, that they agreed to arbitrate.

$15 A Fifteen Dollar Sale of Coats and Suits $15 That Are The Greatest Values We've Ever Offered

Scene: The office of a busy garment manufacturer in New York. In rushes a messenger boy with a telegram. A customer in the West had failed. Five hundred Women's and Misses' Suits and Coats had just been consigned to him.

"Will you take the lot?" was the manager's question to our buyer. "I'll make you a rock-bottom price." To make a long story short—they're here, and all that we say in the headlines—THE GREATEST VALUES WE'VE EVER OFFERED. Here's our buyer's story written from New York: "Have just purchased a big lot of Women's Coats and Suits, made to retail at $20.00 and $25.00. Got them at a price, so remarkably low that we can advertise the entire lot Monday at $15.00. They should go like hot cakes, for they are the handsomest lot of garments I have seen this season."

$24.50 Fur-Trimmed Suits
Fur—that essential accessory to the smartest apparel this fall—plays an important part in this collection of suits. The materials consist of all-wool French diagonals, in black, blue, brown and green, others of poplin and mixtures. Chin-chin collar of velvet topped with a band of fur. Coats are made with a decided nip-in at the waist and flaring skirts. Guaranteed linings.

Suits That Are NOT Fur Trimmed
Superbly tailored in a versatility of styles wherein every woman can delightfully please her personality. Of all-wool poplins in black, blue and brown. Flaring skirts; coats are caught in at waist line with a neat stitched-on belt. Handsome silk peau de cygne linings. These suits express an individuality of style that is quite inconsistent with their price.

New Silky Velour Coats
Beautiful garments, and just as warm and practical as they are stylish. Designed with a snug chin-chin collar of velvet; box-pleated back from collar to hem. A novelty belt encircles the waist. New double cuffs. You can tell by the one sketched how ultra-stylish they are. Other splendid models of chevots, nospuns and novelty mixtures. For women and misses. $19.50 values.

Stunning Fall Novelty Mixture Coats
The general style lines of these exceptional Coats will instantly place them in favor with fashionable women. Choose from several hundred garments, including black and white checks, smart chevots in black and soft-toned mixtures and plaids. Effectively trimmed with large buttons, velvet or silk collars. Flare bottoms and belts are other distinguishing features.
